Freelance Creator's License Agreement

This License Agreement is made by and between _____ ("freelance creator") and the Educational Media Company at Virginia Tech, Inc. ("EMCVT, Inc.")

This License Agreement applies to all original content submitted for publication in Silhouette Literary and Arts Magazine, the Woove or any similar EMCVT, Inc. publication for which content is solicited from freelance creators other than EMCVT, Inc. staff members.

Content includes words, photographs, graphics, illustrations, cartoons, designs, advertisements, videos and any other creative work that may be subject to copyright.

The freelance creator agrees that as a condition of submitting content to an EMCVT, Inc. publication, he or she grants EMCVT, Inc. the limited rights to publish that content in a single print issue of that publication, indefinitely on a website associated with that print publication and indefinitely in promotional materials for the publication. For example, content submitted to be published in a single issue of Silhouette may be reprinted on the Silhouette website and in advertisements promoting Silhouette.

The freelance creator retains all rights to their original content other than those explicitly assigned to EMCVT, Inc. in this agreement. Those rights retained by the freelance creator include, but are not limited to, the rights to sell, assign or otherwise license the content for use in media other than that of EMCVT, Inc.
